COOKING FUNCTIONS

LIGHT
The separate light function will illuminate the oven cavity. This function is also useful when cleaning the oven interior and will give a low heat suitable for proving dough.

FAN FORCED
This method of cooking uses the circular element located around the fan to distribute heat evenly resulting in a faster, more efficient operation. Cooking with the fan on allows different kinds of food to be cooked simultaneously on different shelves, preventing the transmission of smells and flavours from one dish onto another.

TOP ELEMENT ONLY
This method of cooking uses the outer top element to direct heat downwards onto the food. For gentle cooking, browning or keeping cooked dishes warm.

LOWER ELEMENT ONLY
This method of cooking uses the lower element to direct heat upward to the food. For slow-cooking recipes or for warming up meals.

CONVENTIONAL COOKING
This method of cooking provides traditional cooking with heat from the outer top and lower elements. Particularly suitable for roasting and baking on the centre shelf.

FAN AND LOWER ELEMENT
This method of cooking uses the bottom element with the fan to circulate the heat upward. For delicate dishes and heating pre-cooked food. Suitable for patisserie and baking foods that require concentration of heat on the base.

CONVECTION OVEN AND FAN ASSIST
This method of cooking provides heat from the outer top and the lower element, plus the use of the fan to circulate the heat and ensure a fast and even distribution. Suitable for baking or roasting when browning is required.

CENTRE GRILL
This cooking method is static grilling utilising the inner top element, which directs heat downward onto the food. Suitable for grilling small portions of meat or for toasting.

FULL GRILL
This cooking method is normal static grilling utilising both top elements which directs heat downwards onto the food. Suitable for grilling medium to large portions of food.

CENTRE GRILL AND FAN
The top centre heating element is turned on and its heat is distributed by the fan resulting in perfectly grilled meat without the need to turn. It is ideal for small cuts such as chicken pieces and racks of lamb.

DEFROST
The fan runs without heat to reduce the defrosting time of frozen foods. The time required to defrost the food will depend on the room temperature, the quantity and type of food: Remove frozen portions of meat completely from packaging and place over the grill rack to allow proper circulation.
